Seeing it Through to Splendid Finish

Canadians Have Record For Never Leaving Anything Half Done

"Seeing it through" may be said to sum up the ambition of every true Canadian during the five years of war. It was the fervent desire of the soldier in the field, it was the supreme thought of the mother when she took tender farewell of her son who for various reasons was unable to fight but gave his money to assist his country in maintaining the organization of her armies at full fighting strength.

In the year following the signing of the Peace Treaty the motto "Seeing it through" should inspire Canadians to finish the war job and to give Canada a good push forward on the road to economic adjustment, to commercial conquests and to industrial prosperity.

In a word, "Seeing it through," should be the compelling thought in the mind of every Canadian when he answers the call of Canada's final Victory Loan and determines to make his contribution the limit of his available cash. With the phrase is bound up the future prosperity of the nation and the fulfilment of her debts of honor to her brave and valiant fighting men.

Mr. and Mrs. Gatenby, with Norman Gatenby, are spending a few days in this district as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Way. They have recently been on a trip to the old country, and made the return passage in the second time of ten days from Liverpool to Calgary. All are looking very well as the result of their holiday.

Memorial Hall

Although canvassing has been suspended for the Memorial hall for the past two weeks, owing to the weather and the distractions of the Victory Loan, a number of subscriptions have been handed into the Financial Secretary, Mr. J. H. M. Martin, since the last report.

Canvassing will be in full swing again during the next two weeks, and if anyone happens to be overlooked, they are requested to give all the same. It will not be intentional. Everyone in the district will be proud to do their share towards a Memorial to the boys who fell in the four-and-a-half years of the Great War, and to provide a challenge for the ones who were fortunate enough to come back.

Skating Risk Wanted

Editor of The Standard.
The rumor of a skating rink is blowing around town among the younger classes freely at present, and I would like to take up a little of your valuable paper to explain my side of the idea. Strathmore is one of the liveliest towns in many miles but the spirit for co-operation sports is fast dying out among the older classes. The only place for the boys to go now is to the pool room, or throw rocks at the laundry.

Some of the elders would propose that the boys should be kept home at nights, but no boy or girl should be kept home all the time. Let them out now and then occasionally. For those who are out on several nights in a week there should be some kind of amusement other than pool, playing or match-making. A skating rink would keep your children out of trouble and at the same time indulge in a healthy sport. A skating rink with dimensions of 75x125 feet and five and a half feet high could be erected on some vacant lot or slightly overgrown ground probably $17500. At the close of the season the rink could be pulled down and the lumber resold in, probably, the same time while it was purchased. This will leave the cost of the rink about $10000.

See. Ladies and Gentlemen $7500 cannot be computed on.

See. All the money now in town and some in the district, which is now in circulation, will be in the hands of the town either as a loan or as a donation.

See. The town either might help by donating another dollar or so. This would also serve as a leading rink, and a skating rink, and would be for both young and old.

All the young fellows who are a leader, now let a meeting be held and terms agreed upon.

In a word, winter is coming.

Education in New World Era

The world upheaval occasioned by the Great War is having its effects not only upon politics and political institutions, finance, trade and commerce, and economics in general, but also upon all social and moral relations. While the great struggle is in progress, and the need for bringing every ounce of power and every drop of resource to bear in achieving victory become more and more evident, people begin to say that the old world would never be the same. This, in fact, because a little saying, and many who made use of it hardly realized just how true it was and how great was the revolution taking place in the world, and which was affecting every phase of individual, community, national and international life.

Remarkable and far-reaching as have been the changes brought about in political life and institutions—and here in Canada we are only now beginning to realize just how great the change has been, and just beginning to get a glimpse of what the future may have greater changes which seem impending in finance, trade and commerce, in science and technology, the greatest change of all has taken place in the sphere of social conditions.

The loudest demands of labor for a new place in the social order; the almost world-wide sweep of the movement against the oppression of the legalised liquor traffic; the industries upon greater attention being paid to the health and physical well-being of the people, more especially of the boys and girls—the need for which was so startlingly exposed by the examinations conducted by the army doctors in connection with the recruiting of the famous "tommy" which modern men called for these things are even more significant of the new era upon which the world has entered than those which have to do with the past are how have taught us regard to our more material things.

And in the laying of the foundation for this new social order, the most thoughtful men and women have taken to it in such a way that no one institution will be called upon to play a larger or more important part than the public schools and higher institutions of learning throughout the world. In every province of the continent today, education is receiving the serious attention of the most public-spirited and far-seeing statesmen and leaders in public life.

In Great Britain it has found expression in the most sweeping educational reforms of the last half century or more, and the appropriation of positively staggering sums of money, even at a time when the Old Land is faced with a tremendous national debt and taxation has reached heights hitherto undreamed of.

In Canada a constant awakening in regard to these matters after midnight, and evidence is almost everywhere, and is most noticeable of all in the Provinces of the West and the Northwest. The change which is taking place in the latter Province is, perhaps, most significant of all, and has led to a closer union between Quebec and the other Provinces and the United States.

helps to eliminate those causes of tension which in the past have so greatly retarded our national life.

One of the most promising movements so far as Canada is concerned was the convening of the recent National Conference on Character Education in relation to Canadian Citizenship, which was held at Winnipeg, October 20-22, and which was attended by representatives from all provinces in all walks of life from every Province of the Dominion, and at which inspiring and patriotic addresses were delivered, not only by prominent Canadians, but by leaders of thought from the United States and Great Britain.

So important does the writer of this column consider this great National Conference to have been at this stage in Canada's history, that he proposes to devote some space to his deliberations in future articles.

Very Accommodating

"How did you get on?"

The sweet maiden breathed the words into her lover's nearly ear, and he met him in the passage. He was being "seeing father," and she wanted to see the result.

"Oh, your father is heartless!" said the young man indignantly. "I told him I could not live without you."

"Yes, Yes!" impatiently. "What did he say?"

"He merely offered to pay my funeral expenses!"

Walled 58 Miles in One Day

One of the most remarkable peat-beds ever known, is probably Edward Prince's peat, which was cut in one day from Philadelphia to New York, a distance of sixty miles. It was cut by the City Hall in New York at 12:45 p.m. A year later he was told the same man he had worked forty years before, bringing his own peat to New York. He was told that 1,200 miles in 24 days 20 hours. Of all the records no athlete has ever cut it, it is a miracle in peat-cutting in its past.

For Soldier Settlers

School Lands in Manitoba and Saskatchewan Withheld From Sale

Through the intervention of the school authorities, the school lands in Manitoba and Saskatchewan aggregating 43,000 acres, have been withheld from sale by section 10 of the act to be made available for settlement by returned soldiers. Arrangements have been considered to advertise these lands, 2,000 quarter sections, all for sale by public auction this fall. The lands are situated in the Winnipeg, Brandon, Assiniboia and St. Rose de Lac districts in Manitoba, the Canora, Wadena, Prince Albert and Waskia districts in Saskatchewan. They were selected because the fact that these districts were crops this year were good and increased settlement is particularly desirable. The provincial governments concerned in the sale.

British Strike Very Costly

The approximate cost of the recent railway strike to the British treasury was £10,000,000 sterling, according to an announcement made by the Chancellor of the Exchequer in the House of Commons. The Chancellor added that the publicity campaign against the strike cost the government more than £32,000 sterling.

U.S. May Purchase British Airships

Two and a Half Million Dollars Appropriated By Congress For Purchase

An early closing of the contract for the purchase by the navy department of the British rigid airship R38, the largest airship in the world, now under construction in England, is expected, it was stated at Washington.

Two and a half million dollars were appropriated by congress for the purchase of this airship.

"The success," said the statement, "of the British in building and operating rigid airships is proved by the trip of the R34 to the United States and its return to England. While the Germans had many years' start of the British, the latter have made wonderful progress in the last few years."

"The R38 to outward appearances will look like the R34, but her dimensions, horse-power, speed and range of action will be much greater. When full of gas, she will have a 2,200-cubic foot capacity, which is fifteen times that of the United States rigid dirigible blimp at sea and lost last spring at Newfoundland on the eve of its attempt to cross the Atlantic.

"The R38 is 604 feet in length, 96 feet in diameter, 30 feet in height, and carries a useful load of 45 tons. She is expected to have a maximum speed of thirty knots."

"The British air ministry has decided to train personnel for the R38, that upon delivery the airship can be taken over immediately by a United States crew and flown to the U.S."

To Utilize Tidal Power

In view of the shortage of British coal for export purposes it is reported that French scientists and industrialists are endeavoring to supply power by harnessing the tides. Several years French scientific men have declared that this was so fantastically true that they had secured data on the subject have been collected. In order to apply these theories to the fact of practice, a small scientific company has been formed to carry out experiments at Ploem-mach, on the Cotes du Nord.

Dominions Take New Status

Manchester, Guardian Talks of Revolution in Unwritten Constitution of Empire

The Manchester Guardian is discussing the revolution which has taken place in the unwritten constitution of the British Empire, calls attention to the fact that the dominions are individual states under the peace treaty and have separate votes in the League of Nations council. This point, it says, is little realized in America than in Great Britain, as is shown in one of the proposed league reservations in the American senate on any issue in which the British Empire, or any dominion, is involved, the British Empire suffrage is restricted to one vote.

The Guardian thinks this proposal will not readily find acceptance in the dominions and says Sir Robert Borden's recent insistence on the right of the Canadian parliament to debate the ratification of the peace treaty is a symptomatic of the increasing determination of the dominions to assert individuality. If the league is not to meet with serious setbacks it is essential that the new status of the dominions be fully considered and regulated, the Guardian concludes.

It will be up to the people of Rockyford to express their opinion in regard to the policy of inaction pursued by the present council, if we cannot find amongst us at least one man to take the lead and initiative to go ahead with the programme of development for Rockyford without being influenced by any outsiders, then we had better petition the minister to liquidate the corporation.

WEATHER STILL COLD

The weather has not changed for the better during the past week, and thrusting has been completely tied up on account of the heavy snowfall on Saturday and Sunday, which has covered the ground to the depth of six inches.

The cold has been accompanied by high winds, which have made outdoor conditions very hard, and has caused cattle owners unprepared, as low temperatures over a prolonged period are very unusual at this time of the year.

At least half the crop is still to be done the week was 12.5 below on danger of its being damaged, the cost of keeping threshing crews together is very considerable, and the delay on realization of the crop affects financial prospects.

The lowest temperature recorded during the week was 12.5 below on Tuesday, the 2nd. The weather report for the week will be found on another column.

Local readers may wonder at us devoting so much attention in our columns weekly to weather and crop conditions, but this is done particularly for the benefit of our large number of subscribers in the U.S.A., and other points, who are interested in land in the district, and have written us repeatedly that they consider that

CANADA'S FUTURE DEPENDS ON LOAN

Steady Employment and Prosperity Hinge on Victory Loan.

Canada's future prosperity depends on a great extent upon the success of the Victory Loan. No country can sell goods abroad unless it has a strong financial position. Canada's credit on the international market and other allied countries to keep the flood of goods coming in the country.

The single producers of the farm and the factory and their way across the ocean. The revenue of the farmer and the manufacturer is dependent on the trade relationship between his country and the rest of the world. The equipment of the Victory Loan is large and the success of the loan depends on the order that it comes to the aid of the country. The big employment comes with steady employment.

Great Britain and overseas countries are all dependent on continuing trade relations, but overproduction with war expenses, they must be given credit for the time being. The farmer and the manufacturer must be paid for their products and must sell their goods in cash. Therefore, Canada must finance the production to keep the tide of commerce coming in. But in order to do this, Canada must have the money to do so.

The Victory Loan is the only way to do this. It is the only way to finance the production of goods. It duction of goods. It is the only way three classes—those who are rich, those who are moderately wealthy, and those who are poor—the Victory Loan is a good investment. It is the only way to finance the production of goods.

Be in the front of the Victory Loan

At the beginning of the Victory Loan the success of the loan depends on the order that it comes to the aid of the country.

Local Holdings

The Catholic Ladies Aid are holding a pantry sale on Saturday Nov.
20th, in the King Edward single room.

Dr. Harries, who is taking the place of Dr. Jarvis as C.F.R. Vet. for the Western Bow Valley, arrived here November 1st. Dr. Harries has just been demobilized, after several years of service overseas. Dr. Jarvis left at the end of the month last, and his departure is regretted, as during his stay here he made many friends.

The Standard Enterprise is the latest star in the firmament of Alberta newspapers, and made a very im-pressible debut appearance last week.
The editor is Mr. H. C. Skene, and the publisher is Dr. Jarvis. The Standard are responsible for the type graph of the paper.

Strathmore G.V.C.A. had intended to hold a dance on November 10th, in celebration of Armistice Day, but owing to the Orangemen having the hall engaged previously for that day in connection with a visit from their Grand Master, Sir Geo. Graham, the dance was abandoned. It was a pity if one of the greatest dates in the history of the world to pass without the celebration of a commemorative celebration.

Some people had doubts about the wisdom of the Strathmore Board in celebrating the school and sewing, a full-time staff for High School work but returns have been so justified that the action of the Board there is at present. Just 162 pupils on the school register, of whom 42 are High School pupils.

A ten and nine of Hearts, Cribbage will be held at the residence of Mr. A.
Campbell 24, Saturday afternoon, November 22nd, at 2 o'clock.
Special attractions for children. Proceeds in aid of Anglican Ladies Guild.

A great showing of dwelling houses at the present time, a swarm of householders follow the fortunate individual who has a house to rent.
Something should be done to relieve the competition. Why should not the Board of Trade get together someone and try and solve a scheme.

Talking about Boards of Trade, we are to realize that Strathmore right now is on the eve of an era of expansion. If only the people in the town will make it their opportunity. Let the business men of the town work together for the town's good. We have many wide-awake merchants and dealers right here in this town, but sometimes they are not so good as some of the others, and therefore will not support the Board of Trade or any other similar movement. Forget that stuff and get together. Unfortunately, we have two or three business (C) men in town who have the idea that Strathmore reached the apex of perfection when they put in the sidewalk system, and that only difference between it and New Jerusalem is the gold, instead of copper, is the material used for the walks there.

Jim Jeffries couldn't come back, but Jim Chaplin has. About four months ago Jim and Mrs. Chaplin bade us a cheerful farewell, of the prospect of living the remainder of their lives in some quiet nook in Newfoundland, England. But as we have stated, they are back already, and looking for another farm in this part of Alberta. Jim's menagerie is now embarrassed with letters, but still believes in the greatest country ever to come back to.

St. Jim Mercer and wife arrived back from overseas last week. St.
Mercer completed the entire cycle in good shape by bringing back a pretty French girl with him as his bride.

For the benefit of those who have not yet subscribed to the Memorial Hall, we would say that it is hoped to visit them all within the next two weeks. The boys are putting on a big drive, but canvassing has been interrupted during the past two weeks by the nature of the weather.

F. Lindsey was fined $20.00 and costs on Saturday before Justice Lymbert and Vickery, for the theft of a fur coat from Harry Shindler, Constable Walt presented.

A dance will be held at Nankana in aid of the Strathmore Memorial Hall on Friday, November 17th. Everybody

The Methodist Ladies Aid will hold their chicken supper on November 21st. Reserve this date, as it will be the hostess at the Aid meeting on Thursday the 12th.

SHE withstood everything in the field and above all was, and still is, the last and only car to survive until the cessation of hostilities—"Extract from letter received by Ford Motor Company from a British Soldier, in Africa.

Over shell-torn roads, through water soaked fields, second only to the tanks in its power to climb debris and crater holes, the Ford car made a world famous record in the fighting area of the great war. In press despatches, in field reports, in letters, in rhyme and song the praises of the Ford were sounded.

In France - 700 cars out of 1,000 were Fords In Italy - 850 cars out of 1,000 were Fords In Egypt - 996 cars out of 1,000 were Fords In Mesopotamia - 999 cars out of 1,000 were Fords

The Ford power plant that established this world-wide record in every theatre of the war remains the same. It will be in the
